

ROBLOX RANTS

TUTORIAL

By LagSpike

“Learn how to make a quick Roblox rant video from start to finish—plan, record, and edit your clips like a pro in just a few minutes. Perfect for short, funny, or savage rants.”

Materials Needed:

- Roblox game of choice (OBBIES ARE RECOMMENDED)
- Screen recording software (Mobizen, OBS)
- Microphone or headset (Or use text to speech)
- Video editor (basic, like iPad apps or free desktop software)

Steps:

1. Plan Your Rant

- Pick one topic or issue in Roblox (e.g., a game bug, funny glitch, or annoying trend).
- Write 3–5 short points you want to say. Keep it punchy. (You Could Use ChatGPT)

2. Record Your Clips

- Open Roblox and start recording.
- Capture gameplay that matches your points.
- Record your voiceover while playing, or do commentary separately.

3. Edit Your Video

- Trim dead time and boring moments.
- Add short captions or effects for emphasis.
- Keep it under 5 minutes for a short tutorial vibe.

4. Add Finishing Touches

- Create a simple thumbnail that highlights the rant topic.
- Write a clear title and description explaining your video.
- Include one hashtag like #RobloxRant for visibility.

5. Upload and Monitor

- Post the video as public.
- Check analytics for retention and engagement.
- Reply to comments to boost interaction.
